Those Twins Make it cheaper to travel than to stay AT HOME

Twin Tickets are tickets good either for one round trip or for two people one way. Just like buying two street car tickets. Twin tickets between Marion and Columbus are worth $1.35 a pair. "Ask the man" at the Union Station, he sells them only via the Hocking Valley.

Nothing Too Small

For our greatest attention, our qualities enables us to fill orders for meats, etc., of every possible description. We are pleasing thousands of Marion county people. Most of them seven times a week. How about you one time. Suppose you try us. Same careful attention to all orders. Come, look us over.

Tonight there will be some big doings at the local rink and the building should be packed from one end to the other to witness the Coshocton-Marion game. Last night at Coshocton, the Bull Dogs succeeded in defeating Marion and the locals will be after revenge tonight.

The boosters will all be out in full force. The management has extended an invitation to every lady in the city, announcing that no admission will be charged the fair sex. This is done so that every lady who has not witnessed a polo game will make an effort to be present. Every polo enthusiast is urged to bring some one to the game who has not witnessed one as yet.

Under local management, the polo team is certain to be a success as the hearty support of the sport loving public is assured.

MARION GOES TO DEFEAT.
Coshocton, O., Feb. 17.—The Bull Dogs outplayed the Mary Anns in a clean, hard fought game on the local floor last night by the score of 6 to 3. Until the first half of the first period had passed neither team was able to land, the visitors took the first, and were followed in rapid succession by two to the local's credit, the Mary Anns took the lead for a minute in the second, but were soon passed, both scored in the third. Taylor, for the visitors, was the stellar member, and Boles guarded him only. For the locals Hickey, Williams and Harrold were the stars. Line-up:

BRANCH RICKEY MAY NOT PLAY BASEBALL THIS YEAR

Branch Rickey, the phenomenal college athlete, who is known to almost every university man and baseball fan in the country, is at the Sawyer Sanatorium, taking a course of electrical treatments, with hopes of strengthening his physical condition in order to be able to pursue his favorite game, baseball, this season.

In an interview today, Rickey declared that he has not given up hopes of being in the game next year, as has been reported. "I have decided this much," said Rickey, "that if I am not able to play a better game of ball than I did last year, I will not be in the game. If I feel that I can be a credit to myself and the New York Americans, I will enter the game, otherwise I will not," he concluded.

Rickey, who has signed to play ball with the New York Americans in the capacity of catcher, next year has not been enjoying the best of health this winter. As a student of the Ohio State law school, he has seemingly over-worked himself and has now practically decided to discontinue his studies for the remainder of the winter and recuperate for the coming baseball season.

"I don't exactly fancy the idea of going to Hot Springs for that seemed to be the favorite resort of the 'has beens,'" declared Rickey this afternoon, after he had received a message from the manager of the New York club, advising same. "I will probably stay around Marion for a week or so and take my athletic work later in a Columbus gymnasium," concluded the athlete.

PRESIDENT QUINN NAMES HIS STAFF OF INDICATOR HANDLERS

President Robert Quinn, of the Ohio State league has appointed his staff of umpires. The indicator men selected by him are E. S. Handboe, of Washington, D. C.; O. E. Sheldon, of Paxton, Ill., and Frank Limerick, of Maysville, Ky. All of the men have been highly recommended by some of the best authorities in the country and the president believes that they will be satisfactory in every way.

The Mirror is in receipt of the following communication from President Quinn, which will be read with interest:

"In order that each of the cities of the Ohio State League, may have the opportunity of being in on the ground floor in the announcement of the appointment of umpires for the season of 1908, I have taken upon myself to address letters to the sporting editors of all the papers in the circuit, asking that they announce the following appointments:
E. S. Handboe, of Washington, D. C., highly recommended by J. Ed. Grillo, formerly president of the baseball men. In the selection of gins and Kentucky, also college games at Marietta, Ohio. He is given a very high rating by the owners of the clubs in the circuit in which he umpires, I have not only taken into consideration their knowledge of the game, and their ability to handle the men on the field, but I have also inquired into their mode of living and moral character. I believe the actions of an umpire of the field cuts as much figure as regards the respect the players and public show him as any one thing in his make up. I will therefore insist upon any umpire working in the Ohio State League, conducting himself at all times both on and off the field, in such a manner as to command the respect of the very best people in each of the cities of the circuit.

The promoters of the Ohio State League have banded themselves together, with an aim to furnish the public with good clean aggressive up-to-date base ball. The players will be required to conduct themselves in a proper manner at all times, or suffer the consequences. The owners of the several clubs have decided to make a special effort to interest the ladies, and to so conduct their parks as to merit the patronage of the very best people in their respective cities. A meeting will be called early in March to adopt a schedule and make final arrangements for opening the season. After the adoption of the schedule, I will have several copies printed and mailed the several papers in the cities of the circuit. I kindly ask that you respect the release date placed on the schedule, as I am anxious that all papers be treated alike, and for that reason, I will have the schedule released throughout the state at the same time.

This will not give the newspapers of the larger cities the advantage as is the case with most minor leagues. I will be glad to answer any questions pertaining to the welfare of the league, that you might feel would interest the patrons of the game.

Very truly yours,
ROBT. QUINN,
President Ohio State League.

THE HALL OF FAME.

Max Darewski, the boy pianist, has insured his hands for $25,000 at a premium of $1,000 a year.

Colonel Joseph Loeffel of Clark county, O., who is a pioneer bee raiser, is only forty-six inches high and weighs but sixty-five pounds.

Although he is ninety years old, B. R. Plung of Skowhegan, Me., has never had the professional services of a doctor. He is still in vigorous health.

Ex-Congressman William J. Coombs of Brooklyn has been elected president of the Municipal Art society of his city, succeeding Charles R. Lamb.

Justice Harlan of the supreme court and seventy-five years old recently said: "If every man would play nine holes of golf before breakfast every morning he would never need to worry about his health."

Enos Foster Cook was re-elected the other day for the thirty-eighth time to the presidency of the Amherst (Mass.) Savings bank. He was one of the original incorporators who secured the charter of the bank in 1864.

Mr. and Mrs. Abram Prosper observed the fifth anniversary of their marriage recently at Eskdale, Mass., by a wooden wedding. It was his third marriage and her second. This also was Mr. Prosper's third wooden wedding and Mrs. Prosper's second.

Hon. David Albaugh De Armond is the father of the congressional delegation from Missouri, and that fact is aptly signified by the initials of his name, D. A. D. He is not a native of Missouri, but first saw the light on a farm in Blair county, Pa., sixty-three years ago.

Charles A. Kennedy, representative from the First district of Iowa, was born in that state, but both his parents were natives of Ireland, and he has the strain of Irish wit running through his veins that makes him one of the most popular of the legislators at the national capital.

Modes of the Moment.

The drop skirt is fast becoming a feature of dress.
Skirts are becoming very tight indeed, and the habit back is much in vogue.

The short waisted empire, high in the back, with long, draggily, limp train, is the style in house dresses.

Hip scarfs of crepe de chine are worn with princess dresses and with the very tight and very clinging gowns of evening.

The velvet dress is now very much in favor. As a street gown it is worn short and trimmed with little besides its deep hem and perchance a ruching of taffeta.

Although the jabot in all its various lengths and shapes has been rather overdone of late, it is still in the height of favor and promises to no continue for another season.—Brooklyn Eagle.

The Sporting World.

The Manchester (N. H.) Driving club has raised $5,000 to put the city's famous old half mile track in shape.

It is officially stated that more than 3,000 athletes will compete in the Olympic meet at London next summer. The former three-year-old trotting champion, Fantasy, will be bred to General Watts, the present holder of the record.

RISING BREAST

And many other painful and serious ailments from which most mothers suffer, can be avoided by the use of "Mother's Friend." This great remedy is a God-send to women, carrying them through their most critical ordeal with safety and no pain. No woman who uses "Mother's Friend" need fear the suffering and danger incident to birth; for it robs the ordeal of its horror and insures safety to life of mother and child, and leaves her in a condition more favorable to speedy recovery. The child is also healthy, strong and good natured. Tales They Tell.

Nellie, a carriage dog of Reading, Pa., eats apples, grapes, almonds, candy, ice cream and peanuts and when in pain begs for medicine.

A Michigan dog, caught in a trap set for wolves, tied to a tree, gnawed the sapling down after hours of work and dragged the trap home, a distance of several miles.

H. C. Ferguson of St. Louis gave up his seat in a street car to an elderly woman, a stranger to him, who asked his name and address, and a few days later he received an envelope containing a five dollar note.

The Cookbook.

A plain omelet is much improved if just before it thickens three tablespoonfuls of grated cream or Parmesan cheese are sprinkled in it.

Some coffee makers think that a tiny bit of salt is a great improvement to black coffee. Use only a few grains, of course, not enough to taste in the coffee.

A popular way of serving minced meat of any kind is in the form of "cutlets." Form the meat into a neat flat cake, the shape of a chop, then stick in one end a small piece of macaroni to stimulate the rib bone that forms the end of a chop. After this is done the whole is rolled in egg yolks, then in breadcrumbs, and fried.

Where It Belongs.
"Excuse me," said the playwright to his friend who was hissing the piece, "do you think it is good form to hiss my show when I gave you the ticket that admitted you?"

McMIX.

One day alone in ninety-ahs
I saw the funny name McMIX.
I wondered who McMIX might be—
An Irishman or Scotchman he.

My memory—was it playing tricks?
Perhaps I'd met this man McMIX.
That somewhat unfamiliar "Mack."

McCarthy I have known for long,
McCabe, McParlands in a throng;
McManus—oh, five or six!
But where, now, did I meet McMIX?

"You have not known him, have not met McMIX," a still small voice says, "yet,
But worry not—as old time ticks
The years away you'll meet McMIX."

"From out the vast will be appear
And spend with you a whole long year,
About one year from now, just wait—
You'll meet McMIX, which is a date!"
—McMIX.

Bilious Spells A HABIT.

Year after year you suffer from attacks of bilious headache, indigestion, constipation alternating with looseness of the bowels, dizziness, despondency and ill temper, until your trouble becomes a habit, or develops into Bright's disease of the kidneys.

You can break this chain of bondage by the use of

Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills

They cure biliousness and constipation by reason of their direct and specific action on the liver, ensuring the filtering of the bile from the blood, where it is poison and passing it into the intestines where it is necessary to aid digestion and regulate the bowels. This great medicine is backed by the skill and integrity of the famous Receipt Book author, A. W. Chase, M. D. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. S. M. Watkins, Lowell St., Iowa, Mich., states:

"I had great trouble with my kidneys, torpidity of the liver and biliousness, and have found the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills most gratifying. They restored the organs to normal and healthful action and made me well."
